

COOKIES POLICY

Please be informed that our Website uses cookies when you visit our Website.

A cookie is a small piece of data that is stored on your computer or mobile device when you visit a website.

Our website uses cookies to help identify your computer so as to tailor your user experience. They are used to store bits of information about your interactions with the website, which the web server can use later when processing your sessions. The cookie is specific to you and it can be read by the web server (when interacting with it) or by programs on your computer.

Types of Cookies Used

There are various types of cookies needed to be used in order to enable the provision of the Services, which include, inter alia the below:

Necessary cookies which are absolutely essential to enable navigation through the Services. Without these cookies, essential security features cannot be activated and services you have asked for cannot be provided.

Performance cookies which are used to improve the use of the Services and the user-friendliness of a Website. They collect information such as the Internet browsers and operating systems used, the number of visits, average duration of visit, the domain name of the website previously visited and pages viewed. These cookies do not collect information that personally identifies you and only collect aggregated and anonymous information. You can delete or block these cookies, but if you do that some features of the website may not work as intended.

Functionality cookies which are used to remember choices or changes in choices you have requested, such as language preference, selections you have made as to text size, fonts and other selected features.

Marketing cookies used to evaluate performance of advertisements and visits on the Services.

Other technology used. We also use technologies such as statistical and performance analysis which track the browsing of the user. This information is anonymous and we are not able to identify your particular habits from the information we have access to. This information helps us to understand how our online advertising is working and we do not use this information to serve your personalised advertising.

How to Manage Cookies

You can control and/or delete cookies at any time and as you wish directly from within your own internet browser or mobile device and prevent any installation. You can delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you do this, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a site and some services and functionalities may not work. It is important to note that by disabling all Cookies, the functioning of the Services may be compromised. For further information about cookies and how to disable them, please refer to www.allaboutcookies.org

Every visitor or user who enables the placing of cookies in the settings of their own web browser shall accept the placing of cookies by the Website and the Privacy Policy.
